THE ROMAN ROAD

Living With Other Believers

Romans 12:6 "Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, let us use them." It is the Holy Spirit who imparts, enables, and empowers the gifts, and directs the use of the gifts. We do not choose our gifts, any more than we choose our eye color. We can develop and grow in the gifts that have been given to us, but we cannot impart a gift to ourselves. The Holy Spirit does not inspire, empower, or bless anything that is not in direct agreement with the principles of God's Word. The Holy Spirit is not our servant, but equips us to obey the Lord and to do His will.

ELIJAH: LIVING OUTSIDE THE COMFORT ZONE

The Passages

1 Kings 19: 1-5a, 11-18

The Point

Don't let discouragement keep you from serving.

Life Connection

Elijah found himself in a dark place as he ran from Jezebel. Yet God did not upbraid him for his negative attitude. Instead, God invited Elijah into His presence. What the prophet did not yet realize was, in that moment, he did not need God to change his situation. He needed God to be with him in his struggle. God's presence changes everything. It is not just what God does for us that makes the difference. It is who He is with us that is the game changer. God can move mountains. He can do impossible things in the world and in your life, but He doesn't always do that. Sometimes the answer is just God quietly present with us in our discouragement, urging us to hold on for one more day, knowing He is with us.
